

The OPEC Award for Journalism 2023

Call for nominations

The call for nominations for the fifth OPEC Award for Journalism has begun. Interested journalists, analysts and media organizations are invited to nominate individual candidates, media organizations or teams for this Award, which will be presented at the 8th OPEC International Seminar in Vienna, Austria, on 5–6 July 2023.

Objective of the Award

The OPEC Award for Journalism honors journalists, analysts and news organizations that have devoted their careers and time to objective, balanced reporting on – and analysis of – the oil market. Such work will have contributed to a greater understanding of the workings of the global oil market over a significant period of time.

Eligibility

The competition is open to all print and broadcast journalists and analysts (including those from OPEC Member Countries) who have reported on – and analyzed – the industry for ten years or more.

Nominations

Completed nomination forms, available on OPEC's website at www.opec.org, together with five samples of work previously published or broadcast (CDs/DVDs) covering the required time-frame should be emailed to opecawards23@opec.org or mailed via post to:

The Chairman
The OPEC Award for Journalism
c/o Public Relations and Information Department
Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries
Helferstorferstrasse 17
A-1010 Vienna, Austria

All material should be received by 15 February 2023. Eligible candidates may nominate themselves, while third-party nominations are also permitted.

Winner

All entries will be judged by a panel of academics, journalists and oil industry experts. The winner will receive a plaque and a monetary award of €6,000, which will be donated on his/her behalf to the institution or charity of his/her choice.

Presentation of the Award

The OPEC Award for Journalism will be presented at the 8th OPEC International Seminar in Vienna, Austria, on 5–6 July 2023.
